

INFORMATION SHEET WHAT IS REQUIRED FOR PROOF OF IDENTITY AND DATE OF BIRTH

To be able to process certain transactions (eg request to transfer funds, requests for payment etc), the law requires that we MUST be reasonably satisfied that we have identified you (ie you are the person you claim to be) and that we have verified your date of birth. This legal obligation is in addition to other identification processes to guard against fraud.

You need to provide certain documents (see overleaf for details of acceptable documents) which enable us to be reasonably satisfied that:

- you are the person who you claim to be (ie the person to whom the funds belong); and
- your date of birth is correct in our records (as your date of birth may or will determine the value of your entitlement, when the amount of that entitlement can be paid to you and the amount of tax (if any) applicable to that entitlement).

Incomplete or incorrect details may delay the allocation of contributions to your account and/or may delay or prevent the payment of your benefit.

CERTIFICATION of PERSONAL DOCUMENTS

What is Required to Certify a Document as a ‘Certified Copy’

All copied pages of ORIGINAL personal documents (proof of identification, date of birth or linking documents, see below) need to be certified as true and correct copies by an individual approved to do so (see below for details of who may certify a document under the AML/CTF Act).

The person who is authorised to certify documents MUST:

1. SIGHT the original AND the copy;
2. make sure BOTH documents are IDENTICAL; AND
3. make sure ALL pages have been CERTIFIED as true and correct copies by writing or stamping in BLUE ink:
 - ‘I certify that this is a true and correct copy of the original document before me’ followed by:
 - their signature
 - their printed name
 - their qualification (eg Justice of the Peace, Australia Post employee, solicitor); AND
 - the date they certified it.

Who May Certify a Document as a ‘Certified Copy’

The following people can certify copies of the originals as true and correct copies (see wording in point 3 above):

- an authorised representative of FuturePlus Financial Services Pty Ltd with two or more years continuous service;
- a Justice of the Peace;
- a permanent employee of Australia Post with two or more years of continuous service;
- legal practitioner (eg solicitor or barrister) who is on the roll of a Supreme Court or the High Court of Australia;
- accountant who is a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia, CPA Australia or the National Institute of Accountants with two or more years of continuous membership; or
- a police officer.

HAVE YOU CHANGED YOUR NAME OR ARE YOU SIGNING ON BEHALF OF ANOTHER PERSON?

If you have changed your name or are signing on behalf of the applicant, you will need to provide a certified copy of the linking document. A linking document is a document that proves that a relationship exists between two (or more) names. The following table contains information about suitable linking documents.

Purpose	Suitable Linking Documents
Change of Name	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Marriage certificate; • Deed poll; OR • Change of name certificate from Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Office.
Signed on behalf of the Applicant	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Guardianship papers; OR • Power of Attorney.

See over for Details of Acceptable Documents for Proof of Identity and Date of Birth.
Please note that a photocopy or a facsimile of a certified copy is not acceptable.
